

I've resently gotten some marketing/sales calls over the telephone. After being on the WI no call list for a number of years, I'd forgotten how disruptive and annoying these calls are. It's nice to come home and not having strangers whine at you. I'd like the Wisconsin no call list to remain the same as it is today.